

New Spirit Filled Life Bible
Isaiah 62:1-7 and Kingdom Dynamic Explanation

1 For Zion's sake I will not hold My peace, And for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, Until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, And her salvation as a lamp that burns. And her salvation as a lamp that burns. 2 The Gentiles shall see your righteousness, And all kings your glory. You shall be called by a new name, Which the mouth of the LORD will name. 3 You shall also be a crown of glory in the *hand of the LORD, And a royal diadem in the hand of your God. 4 You shall no longer be termed Forsaken, Nor shall your land any more be termed Desolate; But you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; For the LORD delights in you, And your land shall be married. 5 For as a young man marries a virgin, So shall your sons marry you; And as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, So shall your God *rejoice over you. 6 I have set watchmen on your walls, O Jerusalem; They shall never hold their peace day or night. You who make mention 7 And give Him no rest till He establishes And till He makes Jerusalem aa praise in the earth.

Kingdom Dynamics 62:1–7 Watchfulness and Restlessness: The True Spirit of Prayer, PRAYER. This passage formed the essential vision for a prayer community organized in the 1700s, in a part of Germany called Moravia. Known as the Moravians, they christened their community Hernhutt, meaning “The Lord’s Watch,” establishing a 24-hour prayer vigil that lasted over 100 years! Isaiah calls such intercessors “watchmen,” noting: 1) They are positioned high on the walls, prayerfully focused in three directions on activities in the city and among the nations, as well as developments in heaven itself (v. 6). 2) Alert to the character and ways of God, they review His promises, which are unfolding both for Jerusalem and for the nations (“Gentiles”) as well (vv. 1, 2). 3) They take stock with a spirit of urgent restlessness, refusing to keep silent before God (vv. 6b, 7). (Ps. 42; 43/Joel 2:12–17) D.B.<sup>1</sup>
